

Get a jump on the trial season and save with pre-paid runs!

Everybody knows it's tough out there, but there's a way to ensure your agility dollars go further. Pre-pay now and save $2.50 per run! That's right: just $16 per run if you order now.

There's no limit to the number of pre-paid runs you can buy, but the total number of runs available at this price is very limited, so don't wait. The offer expires once this limit is reached or on February 15, 2011, whichever comes first. (Last year, the limit was reached within a couple of weeks!)

Pre-paid runs are interchangeable, guarantee entry and can be used for any classes at any of Spot On's five AAC trials in 2011. They're not refundable but they are transferable, so you can give or sell them to a friend if you're unable to use them for any reason. You can even use two to pay for a fun match.

Every trial will include two Steeplechase classes plus three Standard classes and at least one each of Gamblers, Jumpers and Snooker at each level. That means that every dog, no matter what level they're at, will be eligible for at least four classes per day.
